

The Del Mar

The powder bath in the back hall wasn't overlooked at all. Treated with colorful wallpaper and a Cambria (natural quartz) countertop that has an exclusive chiseled edge — a rarity in the world of countertop edging — it's a bathroom that's taking a step away from the traditional norm.

ROOM FOR TWO-PLUS

The master bathroom is fully equipped with matching his-and-hers vanities, Cambria countertops and custom cabinets that flank the built-in Jacuzzi whose base is covered with decorative stone and stacked pebble rock. Similarly, the shower features stone-tiled walls and smooth pebble rock flooring.
